People naturally like to hold the things they care about the most, so when it comes to online shopping, no one wants to part with something they love. As a result, customers will often make significant investments into an object when they purchase it. If you can create a tool that allows customers to safely display and protect their things then you could create a huge amount of extra value for them. To achieve this, we've created a product called ShopSafe. This product allows customers to securely access their items in any environment – storing, installing and removing the display as
