Creo Mixer Funnily enough the tabs are blue and I dont know why.
Utterly disgustingly adorable and a prime example of the desperate change in everyone's ethnic and cultural cvculumbulousness, because they can suddenly personalize everything. Luis Figueroa Rosas Luis Figueroa Rosas (October 31, 1887 - July 27, 1939) was a Paraguayan politician and businessman who was the first president of the National Chamber of Deputies and the National Council of Mayors after a new constitution was adopted in 1938. Figueroa was imprisoned for being a member of the old government and was killed by the new radical government after the coup of 1937.

Biography Luis was born in Canavery on October 31, 1887. He studied in his country, being a lawyer and also developing his career as an entrepreneur. He was married to Isabel de Erraga and had children with her, among them Guillermo de Erraga, president of the National Chamber of Deputies in 1952.
