Features Key:

Explore the underbelly of the multiverse, like nobody has ever seen it before.
Fucking with the space-time continuum. Experiment with time travel, go back in time, cause exactly what happens.
Use an android electronic device to beat some more common fish to death, just for the fun of it.
Turn a U.S. Tax Form into a Big Gun. Bug the government, as an absolute last resort.

Our game has three user modes. Sorry that we don't have any writing in this stretch of text.

- Sandbox mode gives full freedom and you can keep doing anything you like.
- [editor] mode is intended for editing only. Your work will be deleted automatically.
- [playground] mode is a sandbox!

Controls and item functionality

- [player 1] Switch between all the "player 1" tools. (Can also switch to [player 2].)
- Toggle full screen mode, if needed (1280x720 is the default).
- Hold A to toggle hover-over mode.
- Hold the Directional Keys for a directional weapon.
- [Z] Enter or exit the mode, like [F2] (except in [sandbox] mode)

Complete your initial setup.

- One player versus [player 2]. Please note that you [should not] be controlling [player 2].

If you are new to the game, have a small recap of the basics.

- [player 1] Move forwards, back, left or right with the Analog-stick.
- [player 1] Switch weapons with the Right and Left triggers. (Seek to shoot by drawing the weapon to your nose and then moving your head the direction you would like to launch the weapon.)
- [player 1] Use the A button to toggle [Sandbox] mode.
