A Game Where Ideals Rival Supply >>By the command of the power of the Eternal Dragon, the god of this land, I, Gem Silvestri. The Tarnished Lord, as I am known in the Kingdom of Chogaines, is the leader of the five Valorous Guards assigned by the Elden Ring to protect the Lands Between. The Valorous Guards are an elite tactical unit, and I am the leader. I have battled many enemies, and I am proud of the fact that I am the only one left standing. Why do I exist? I exist to protect the Lands Between. To defend the Valorous Guards The five Valorous Guards who are defending the Lands Between, each one of whom has a name. I am the leader of the Valorous Guards I was selected because I was the best suited. Why was I selected? I am not a leader with a strong tie to the Valorous Guards. I have no interest in their lives. In spite of that, they have great respect for my ability as a leader. One does not meet a strong leader. There is no way to evaluate a leader by their face or their words. When a leader is chosen, he or she must possess the mysterious traits that the Valorous Guards are looking for. If we find one, we will not hesitate to promote him. The Valorous Guards are good at their jobs, but they are not good at anything else. The reason for that is simple. They do not know much about anything. Maybe they are like that because we chose to protect the Lands Between for this long. That is what my power was used to force upon the Valorous Guards. Maybe the reason for the Valorous Guards' lack of ability is because they lack excitement. They do not know what they are protecting. If so, then they will be likely to hesitate in the places where they need to make decisions. And, they will not be able to follow through when they do make those decisions. They will not be able to even see through their decision-making ability. I am not a leader who possesses such mystical abilities. What are they going to do? The Valorous Guards are becoming lazy in their jobs. I am going to try to

Some details about online play: View Larger The online mode has played a central role in Ys VIII: Lacrimosa of Dana, and it's been great to see this feature return in Ys VIII: Lacrimosa of Dana +. This first patch will give players a chance to try out the game's new online element. This is done by connecting to the online mode in the game's menu. One of the game's core features, that is, the combination of a large world, a rich game system, and hundreds of hours of enjoyment, is still in full effect in this series. In addition to the new online mode, new characters like Dana, who previously appeared in the Echoes of Light original game, will also be added. Additionally, this update also sees the addition of costume packs which, when added to players' characters, can be used to dress up their characters in the familiar outfits of their partner characters. The costumes of the partner characters of Dana, Linhardt, and Hendryx were added as patch 1.1.0. The costume packs currently include three new costumes for Dana, from Silica to Dawn, and two new costumes for Linhardt and two new costumes for Hendryx. And not to be ignored, this patch also adds a new game system, the online mode, which will allow players to take on adventures online with their partners. Although the online mode was first seen in titles like Dragon Quest X, Final Fantasy XIV, and Xenoblade Chronicles X, it will be a new feature in the new Ys VIII: Lacrimosa of Dana, as well as a core feature in the sequel, Ys IX: Monstrum Nox. Have you ever known a name of a creepy monster and wondered what would you do if it lived in your apartment? I mean, would you be able to stand it being in your house? To a long time fan of the franchise, this game brings a lot of new elements like: - A change in isometric view, it's now in 3D. - Online play of co-op, which allows you to play with another partner. - A new adventure, where you can meet The Seven Tribes and go on a quest of revenge bff6bb2d33
