Sniper Ghost Warrior [PROPHET] - 3 / 09 /.. It's not lazy at all to try and work things out when it comes to getting on to a dating site. 3. Humility To simply show up and acknowledge that you are no expert is the greatest way to get on a dating site. By recognizing the gravity of the situation, you will feel a lot more confident in when you realize you can't decipher what it is that they want in a partner. 4. Know Your About A pretty simple little secret, but one I could not of said to myself a few years ago when I was first starting out. If you simply can't bear to invest a little time, it's ok. We all have things to do in life and life is difficult enough without settling for less than what you are capable of. For those that know you well, you will be able to tell a lot about your own personality, and even if you don't know them, you are still living the same type of life so you can make good estimations. 5. Know your Partners Another little secret. My husband and I have dated, and probably will date again for the rest of our lives. We don't know everything about each other, or to be more specific, we know a little about our own personalities but we know a lot about each other. It's the reality of it. A lot of people don't realize this, but really you don't have to know everything about your significant other to consider them a good match. A lot of times, people are afraid to do things
