layers of darkness comes packed with a plethora of features, from customizing your character through voice acting to coding new weapon types, and even the ability to cycle through your weapon loadout to your grenades. all of this and more is based on your creative and unique playing styles. you can even unlock a couple of extra features by playing a couple of select missions and by purchasing the add-ons. one of the very interesting features of layer of darkness is the ability to fully customize your character. you can change your character's skin tone, hair color, height, and many more attributes of your character. you can also manually assign the names of each of your characters, as well as make your character race and gender as you want it. all of this, and more, can be done with the use of the in-game character creator (make sure you choose the 'create' option on the main menu). you can also have your characters be from anywhere in the world, male or female, and be of any race. in addition to that, it also features customizable weapons, armor, and grenades. each element can be customized in a multitude of different ways. you can also assign names to your weapons, grenades, and armor, as well as their respective stats. again, using the in-game character creator (make sure you select the option on the main menu), all of this can be done to your heart's content. since layer of darkness has the ability to customize weapons and armors, one of its most popular features is to code custom weapons. layer of darkness has thousands of weapon types to choose from. in addition to that, i have been placing a unique weapon per map. so if you play in a certain map, the weapon used will be the one assigned to that specific map. as i create more and more weapons, you will also have the opportunity to unlock the ability to create your own custom weapons. the weapon creation system has been very well thought out, and i'm sure it will be extremely helpful for players. however, there are many other, more important, features that are included with the mod. 5ec8ef588b
